Note: Membership automatically renews on your anniversary date and is continuous until a written resignation is received. For federal income tax purposes, membership dues and contributions to the Chamber are deductible as business expenses, and as charitable contributions. As a result of the 1993 budget and tax laws, lobbying expenses are no longer deductible for federal tax purposes. The Chamber for lobbying expenses uses approximately 3% of dues. This portion of your dues is therefore not deductible for tax purposes.
