What Our Members Say:

I joined the Chamber in the spring of 2020, when the pandemic was just starting. The virtual networking opportunities the Chamber has offered has allowed me to make some great connections. The Chamber is passionate about helping people make business to business connections but also in helping to bring consumers to local retail establishments.

– Amanda Tortora, ServiceMaster Albino

Seitz LLC is thrilled with—and depends on—the Chamber. One of the many services offered is the Manufacturers’ Coalition that uniquely benefits any size manufacturing company. It brings companies together with educational and economic development resources to address issues manufacturers face. We actively network with peers and share best practices. I highly recommend this Chamber.

– Evan Berns, President & CEO, Seitz LLC

I am proud to say I am a graduate of the NW Chamber’s Leadership Class of 2013. It was an amazing experience that introduced me to many community and business leaders in the area. I still participate in the Chamber and continue to meet new members and foster new business relationships.

– Michelle Teodorczyk, Assistant Branch Manager Northwest Community Bank

The Northwest Connecticut Chamber has something for everyone. During my 22-year relationship with the Chamber I have worn three separate professional hats with very different needs. Small business owner, B2B sales representative and business development in manufacturing. The professional resources, business contacts and friendships are invaluable. My advice... join, participate, and benefit!
